

Veteran Bassist Dan Porter is a fixture in the Central NY music scene since the 1970s. His resume includes some of the most popular acts in the region including the Solid Oak Band, Midnight Oil, Rolling Easy, the Paul Case Band, Blue Prints, Shovel Head, and the Dust Devil Band among others

Dan and Darryl were founding members of the legendary FUBAR festivals that became rites of passage for 70s-80s music fans.

Dan first worked with John Savage in the 80s filling in bass guitar for a few gigs. He played bass with John Savage and Friends at Woodstock '99 in Rome NY. He's featured on the last two of Savage's releases "Ain't Got No Money" and "Empty Spaces" and is a member with percussionist Darryl Mattison in the John Savage Trio.
